

RESONATE: Tango FESTIVAL

Tango comes to Canberra; get out there and smoulder!!

FREE PUBLIC CONCERT!!

Canberrans will have an opportunity to stare longingly into one another's eyes as the hypnotic feel of Latin America floods the The Australian National Botanic Gardens.

Sunday 7th of November

5pm - 7pm

Tango originated on the streets of Buenos Aires and Montevideo and Canberra Youth Music will be taking it to The Gardens.

In the final event of the Festival, the Resonate Festival Tango Orchestra will play its inaugural concert along with Maggie Ferguson's Fuego Blanco.

In the exquisite surrounds of the Australian National Botanic Gardens fill your evening with music and dance. Sway to the rhythms of love.

TANGO = Passion & Romance

Festival guest artists Ignacio Varchausky and Santiago Polimeni, two of the worlds leading exponents of Tango music will play with the Resonate Tango Festival Orchestra.

Don't miss the major cultural event

Contacts: Nathan Ford, CEO Canberra Youth Music 02 62474714
Peter (PJ) Williams, Tom-Tom Marketing and Events 0407 215554

www.canberrayouthmusic.asn.au