

Pinnularia viridis (Nitzsch.) Ehrenb.

Abh. Königl. Akad. Wiss. Berlin 1841: 305, 385, pl. 1/1, fig. 7 (1843)

Bacillaria viridis Nitzsch, Schr. Naturforsch. Ges. Halle 3(1): 97, pl. 6, figs 1, 3 (1817)

Type locality: Germany (?)

Australian distribution: N.T., Qld, N.S.W., Vic., Tas., W.A. (Perth)

Reference: J. John, The diatom flora of the Swan River Estuary, Western Australia, Biblioth. Phycol. 64: 1–358 (1983)

Extra-Australian distribution: Argentina, Gulf of Mexico, U.S.A. (Indiana, Great Lakes, New York), Canada (New Brunswick, Bay of Fundy), Spain, British Isles, France, Belgium, Netherlands, Germany, Baltic Sea, Czech Republic, Italy, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Romania, Turkey, Nigeria, Pakistan, S India, Indonesia, China, Hawaiian Islands

Note: Usually in fresh water; also estuarine